“You are the ultimate role model. You have given us leadership on and off the field since 2010 when we drafted you in the first round. You are a great example of the impact that someone can have with great wisdom, leadership, courage and passion.”

- Bill Belichick, Head Coach, New England Patriots

The Leader of Change Award recognizes an individual who is making deep impact in helping to create a more just and equitable Boston through critical and sustainable change. We are thrilled to honor New England Patriots defensive back, 11-time defensive captain and three-time Super Bowl Champion, Devin McCourty as our 2022 Leader of Change Award recipient. In addition to his athletic accolades, Devin has positively influenced the internal culture of the Patriots organization while also making sustainable impact on social justice and racial equity issues at the federal, state, and local levels.

HEALING THROUGH ACTION

We have much to celebrate despite the collective grief we’ve experienced over the past two years. We watched the twin pandemics of COVID-19 and racial unrest change the world right before our eyes. But we never lost sight of each other as a community or our vision of an equitable Boston.

In fact, TBC’s vision came into finer focus as we continued to serve our city’s youth, youth workers, and youth-serving organizations throughout the pandemics -- learning, building, and adapting as an organization. Because history has taught us that we, as people and as a community, heal through action every day, however big, small, active, or still.

This year, we will come together to celebrate our collective vision for an equitable Boston, focusing on Healing Through Action as our theme and clarion call. Trinity Boston Connects acts along three healing pathways - youth development, clinical care, and organizational change -- to benefit all involved in the systems supporting our youth of color in Boston.

Please join us in-person this year for an evening of inspiration, activation, and community!
